

BRLF

India
Philanthropy
Initiative

Hosted by:

N ROHINI
NILEKANI
philanthropies

Curated by:

Arghyam

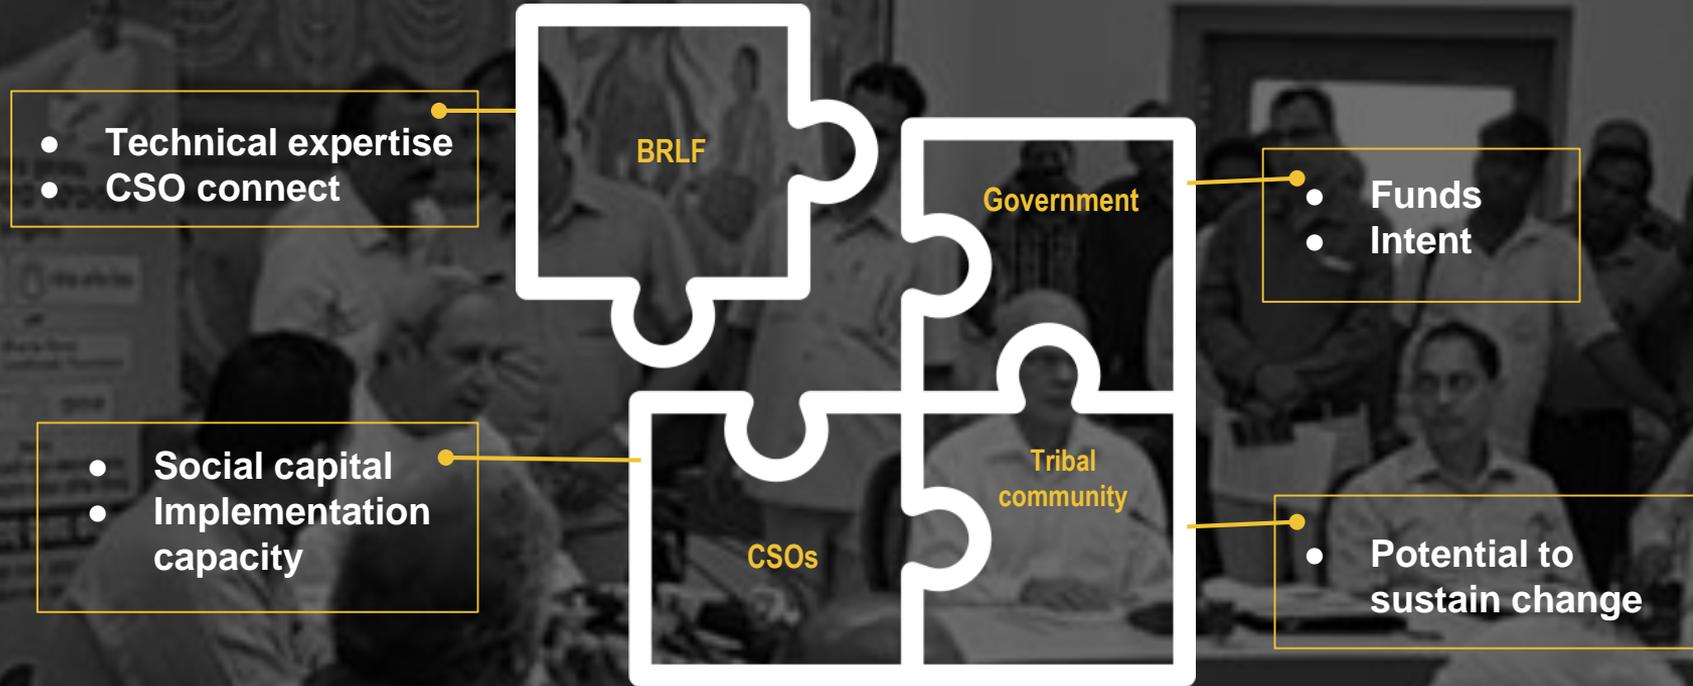

Transformative partnerships for Tribal Water Security

Scaling community outcomes through partnerships with the government and civil society

BRLF

Pramathesh Ambasta, CEO

BRLF: The link between fragmented but effective CSOs and state governments equipped to create scale

The key: Large-scale institutionalised partnerships

मेगा नगरपालिका परियोजना छत्तीसगढ़
छत्तीसगढ़ शासन - बी.आर.एल.एफ. - एक्सिस बैंक फाउंडेशन पार्टनरशिप
Project Inception Workshop
Venue - New Circuit House, Raipur

Government

BRLF

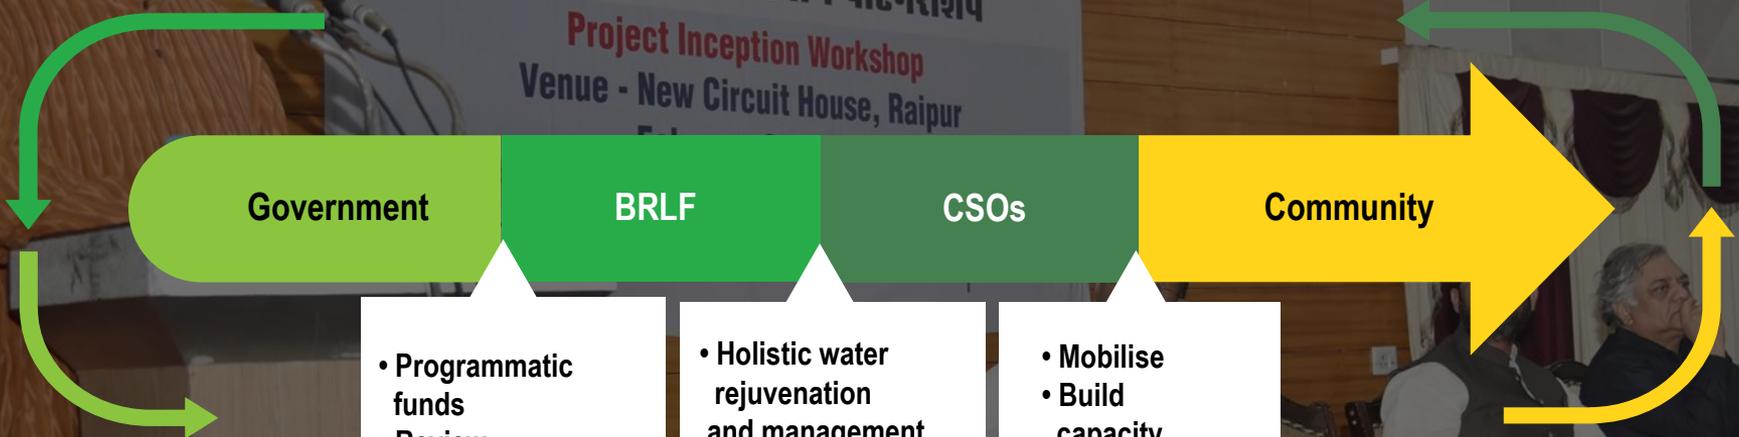

CSOs

Community

- Programmatic funds
- Review mechanisms

- Holistic water rejuvenation and management plans
- Support for CSOs

- Mobilise
- Build capacity
- Technical support

Approached by the Government for partnerships

3 State Govt. Partnerships

₹3,246 crores committed over 4 years

Govt. funds leveraged 48x

30 Lakh people impacted

Policy changes

Spillovers to non-project blocks

In Focus

Ushar Mukti West Bengal

- 102,477 plans uploaded at a cost ₹1,793 cr
- Covered 4,975 ha and 7,500 poor HH at ~ ₹80cr expenditure
- Generated 8.9 mn person-days of work under MGNREGA
- Training of 2,000 dhara sewaks (frontline NREGS functionaries) ongoing

Chattisgarh Mega MGNREGA : 26 blocks; 7.29 lakh hectares; NREGA funds: 1166 cr

Odisha APC: 40 tribal blocks; 1 lakh farmers directly impacted; Rs.293 cr from government

Spring Rejuvenation (with Arghyam): Spring discharge increase by 40% to 200%; Additional 10 lpcd of water

Ushar Mukti: Soil and water conservation works with plantation are rehabilitating uplands

A large crowd of women, many wearing colorful headscarves and saris, are gathered together. In the foreground, two women are speaking into a microphone. One woman is wearing a yellow sari and a purple top, while the other is wearing a yellow sari and a yellow top. The background is filled with many other women, some looking towards the camera and others looking towards the speakers.

Together we can achieve more

Fund deeper and wider reach

Strengthen smaller committed CSOs

Long-term impact on the government system

CONTACT US TO KNOW MORE

BRLF

www.brlf.in pramathesh@brlf.in info@brlf.in